Call for Participants

3rd EURAM Early Career Colloquium
"Managing Expectations"
23rd-25th of November, 2011

Hosted by Dublin City University, Ireland

Registration Deadline: 14th October, 2011

Following the hugely successful EURAM Early Career Colloquia held in Nuremberg and Innsbruck, the 'Early Career Community' are pleased to announce that the 3rd EURAM Early Career Colloquium (EECC) will be hosted by Dublin City University Business School from the 23rd-25th of November 2011.

The aim of the EECC is to offer a platform for early career academics (broadly defined e.g. assistant professors, Post-doctoral researchers, recently appointed lecturers/associate professors, advanced PhD students) to come together to discuss key challenges, learn from experts and share career related insights. The EECC provides a forum for networking, knowledge exchange and development of research collaborations.

Summary details of the Dublin EECC are as follows (elaborated overleaf):

- Where: Dublin City University, Ireland.
Who: Early Career Scholars in all fields of management.
Why: Share experiences, network, and reflect on key early career challenges and opportunities.
When: 23rd-25th of November, 2011
Theme: Managing Expectations
How: To secure a place at the Dublin EECC please send an e-mail with your CV and brief details of current research projects to brian.harney@dcu.ie
Deadline: Please note that while the final date for registration is 14th of October places are limited and will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.
Cost: Registration fee of €120.00 to cover Lunches, Tea and Coffee, Colloquium Dinner and Guinness Storehouse visit.

Meet other young European researchers. Exchange ideas and insights on research projects and career opportunities. Shape a growing network of young European management researchers.

The 3rd EECC is delighted to welcome you to Dublin, Ireland home of U2, Guinness and the literary genius of James Joyce and Oscar Wilde. The EECC will be hosted by Dublin City University Business School. Dublin City University is conveniently located near Dublin Airport and in proximity to Dublin City Centre. The theme of the Dublin EECC is “Managing Expectations”. Key sessions will build on this theme covering the domains of career expectations, publication and reviewer expectations, expectations of the academic profession and funding body expectations.

Preliminary structure of colloquium

- Wednesday 23rd of November Informal evening get-together in Dublin City Centre.
- Thursday 24th of November Welcome, Group socialisation, Managing Career Development and Career Expectations, Managing Publication and Profession Expectations.
Social excursion and Colloquium Dinner
- Friday 25th of November Meet the survivors, Funding Body Expectations, Sharing work in progress and exploring prospective collaborations.

Participants who have secured a place at the EECC will be sent a survey in advance of the event asking about key challenges they confront, issues they would like discussed and insights they might like to share. The sessions will subsequently be designed to address the key issues highlighted- ensuring that the content of sessions is member driven.

Following the tradition of previous EECC on the Thursday evening the group will go on a ‘cultural’ excursion to the Guinness Storehouse where they can enjoy a pint, debrief, and marvel at the Dublin Skyline. This will be followed by the Colloquium Dinner in Dublin City Centre, near the famed Temple Bar.

Please join us in Dublin to share research experiences and to strengthen the young EURAM cross border network.
